

GAME RESULTS FOR THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 2010

Surprise, your money has again gone to your favorite charity, The David Stone "Golf For the Challenged" Foundation. I was able to flight the group into two flights, so the foundation only took the lion's share of one flight. Of course, the lion's share of the other flight goes to Marv Pierce and me. You guys don't have a chance.

Kyle and I reviewed everyone's card to make sure that everyone calculated their par points properly. I am happy to report that everyone did so correctly (see, you guys can follow directions) except Marv Pierce's group who insisted on taking three points for a net birdie rather than the indicated two points. Unfortunately, the correction did not prevent Marv from taking first place of the first flight.

Match play continues. Most of the first rounds have been completed and some of the second rounds. If you still have to complete your first round match, please try to do so by the end of next week.

The results from Thursday, June 10th are:

First flight: First Marv Pierce, net 66, par points 26 $20

Second Roger Nielsen, net 67, par points 24 $15

Third Tie Steve Munsen net 71 par point 23 $5 and

Jim Rogers net 71 par point 23 $5

Second Flight First, Dave Stone, net 66, par points 34 $20

Second, Walt Christiansen, net 66, par points 28 $15

Third, Bill Grijalva, net 74, par points 18 $10

Fourth Tie, Richard Me i o (I have deleted the "l"s to make it easier to spell and pronounce), net 78, par points 16 $2.50 and

Jack Heskett, net 74, par points 16 $2.50

Next week is Individual Low Net and a good time to do a match. It is also random pairings, so I will email out the starting times Wednesday afternoon.
