

GAME RESULTS OF JUNE 17, 2010

Okay, I will leave Dave Stone alone....this time. When I took this wonderful, nonpaying job, I thought I might be able to direct some of the sweeps money my way. I have generally failed at that. I do have one highlight about which I can write home. My match with Brad Miller was tied after 18 holes. On the first playoff hole I had a reasonable drive. Unfortunately, Brad misplayed his tee short of the red tees. His second was about 100 feet in front of the red tees and his third was out of bounds. Seeing the future, Brad conceded the hole, which means that I won the hole with a double eagle. That is the only double eagle I have ever had.

The results are:

First Flight 1st Paul Jeglum, net 68, $20.00
2nd Joey Fowler, net 69 $15.00
3rd Kim Roberts, net 72 $10.00
4th Marv Pierce, net 73 $5.00

Second Flight 1st Buzz Trainor, net 66 $20.00
2nd Bob Randall, net 68 $15.00
3rd Frank Brunelli, net 69, $10.00
4th Tie Walt Christiansen, net 70, and Stew Johnson, net 70, $2.50 each

Third Flight 1st Doyle Blaylock net 73, $20.00
2nd Mike Peters, net 77, $15.00
3rd Tie Bob Jenkins and Bill Grijalva, net 80, $7.50 each

I tried to send an email on Wednesday with the pairings. Apparently, I was unsuccessful. Give me a break, the only computer I used when I went to school used punch cards. Nevertheless, I wanted to again try to pass on the following:

I know I have been picking on David Stone, some might say without mercy, particularly Dave's wife. In response, I say: "Stop winning and I will leave you alone!" Nevertheless, I feel compelled to pass on this information. Two weeks ago, during the two man better ball competition, we had placed Dave Stone and Frank Motkus in the money. This was a mistake as we had misread their card. As it happened, I did not write an email with the results that week. Several days later, I attempted to get a dig in on Dave for yet another winning score. He told me there had to be a mistake. He personally tracked down the score cards and showed where we had misread their card. We agreed and Dave forfeited his money (sorry Frank you lose yours too). I commend the honesty.
