

GAME RESULTS FOR THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 2010

Dave Stone thinks he can avoid my scrutiny by not showing up for a men's day event. Wrong.

"How many fire loss experts does it take to start a camp fire? I don't know but someone is going to get sued." (I know that was pretty lame, but I am trying. Not good enough, vote for Marv Pierce for next year's Tournament Director.)

Now onto other persons of interest. At the Travel Cup event last Tuesday we had a defection. Bob Randall played for the Graeagle crew. I know that several of you are cross-overs, but this after we helped him fully develop his handicap. It hurts. As a result Woody Barry, whom Randall thrashed in the Travel Cup event, has hung on Mr. Randall an often use label. A label which may be well deserved as Mr. Randall combined with Jack Cornish to take some of your money at Thursday's Best Ball event. "Birds of a feather, flock....".never mind that is too easy.

To date no one has indicated that they wish to advance to the Senior Zones. Whether you won or not yesterday, if you want to compete, contact me soon. Entry form is due quickly.
