PLUMAS PINES WOMEN'S GOLF CLUB

July 2023

We're so excited, and we just can't hide it...

So many changes are happening at Plumas Pines this summer. First, we were dazzled by the new platinum golf carts, so comfortable and sleek. Now, the club is welcoming new owners with new visions! Imagine a repaired cart path and re-paved parking lot. They hope to have a sports bar ready to welcome thirsty guests in August. The sale is in escrow.

BIG SALE! Drop in to the Pro Shop by June 14th for some retail therapy. Soft goods (clothing and shoes) are 40% off and hard goods (golf balls and such) are 25% off.

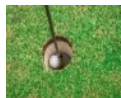

California Dreamin' in the Pines

You're invited! Our 40th Annual Invitational will transport us to the fun, fun, fun of our dreams starting on Sunday, August 6th with Registration and an optional horse race, and Monday, August 7th for a one-day tournament followed by an al fresco lunch catered by Cuccia's. It's not too late to sign up, form a team, and wax your surfboards...or polish your golf game. No team yet? Contact Laurie Humphries at (559) 760-2655. The Invitational Entry Form and Informational flyers are available on our Ladies Club webpage at www.plumaspinestgolf.com. You can also pick up these documents in the Plumas Pines Golf Shop.

Time to Party! The mid-season luncheon is scheduled for this Friday, July 14, at Cuccia's. Alas, only a few members have whetted their appetites, so contact Jennifer Zumbro at (530) 836-0623 ASAP to come to the feast of salads and pastas, with gelato for dessert. Price is only $26 including tax and gratuity. Let's enjoy each other's company... no competition unless you like to play with food!

4th of July Mixer, sponsored by the Mens' and Women's Clubs was played as a 4-person Scramble. The top-placing teams were Lana Janovick/Jim Kinkade, John Zimlich/Adi Abreu-Perjo in first place with a net 54; Sharon Russell/James Greenwald, Pat and Dennis Madsen in second place with a net 58; and Janet and Bill Grijalva/Thomas Gleason/Carol Desmond taking a close third with a net 59, edging out two other teams in a card off.

The Niners have been playing "putts" and Jan Enloe has had the magic touch, winning in the past two consecutive weeks. On June 11th, she posted only 15 putts, gliding past Cindy Rodella and Mary Peters. She's fun to watch.

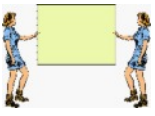

Captain's Cup qualifying rounds are ongoing, so be sure to sign up. Typically, the qualifier is on the last Tuesday of the month. Low gross and low net winners will club off in the September finals. Lana Janovick and Sharon Russell qualified in May, while Susan Anderson and Connie Raheb did so in June.

Handicap Championship Tournament...Six competitors are vying for the Handicap Championship in a three-day competition that concludes on Tuesday, July 18th. They include Connie Raheb, Carol Desmond, Cathy Cianciolo, Sharon Russell, Judy Rossi, and Lana Janovick.

The Men's Club Mountain Classic in September needs volunteers to help with registration, raffle ticket sales, monitoring closest-to-the-pin on various holes, and such. Traditionally, the Men's Club has helped for the women's invitational and the Women's Club reciprocate. It's fun! Contact Pat Madsen at (415) 624-5619 for details.

Officer Change...As you may know, due to unforeseen circumstances, Lana Janovick resigned as Co-Captain. Lana did a fabulous job moving us forward, spearheading the review of the standing rules and getting alignment on rules/scoring for holes 10 and 13. Pat Madsen is finishing out the season as her Co-Captain and doing an outstanding job!

2024 Slate of Officers...Time flies while we're having fun, and it is already time to build a slate of officers for 2024. Captain, Co-Captain, Secretary, and Treasurer will be elected at the awards luncheon in September. If you are interested or would like to suggest someone to serve, please reach out to the nominating committee, Laurie Humphries, Sue Anderson, and Cathy Cianciolo.
